Because We Care!

About Our Students

Our students can't vote, but we can vote in their interest. Politicians determine school funding levels, testing requirements, and more.

About Our Schools

Bond and override elections must be passed to build new schools and keep class sizes as low as possible. Voters determine these ballot issues with a Yes or No vote.

About Our Community

Our students and our schools are part of a community and it is our civic responsibility to participate in elections to ensure our voice is counted as decisions are made that impact our neighborhoods and communities.

About Our Profession

Politicians have a hand in almost every aspect of our profession: professional standards, how we are hired, how we are fired, what we teach, how we teach, our pensions and our salaries.

JOIN US! Be part of a strong, civic-minded, and active membership to make a difference for our students, our schools, our communities and our profession.
